

LAND RUN

Developer Rusty Watson is determined to acquire, by any means necessary, a plot of land owned by an elderly man in the Willow Springs, Oklahoma, community. Driven by greed and personal torment, Rusty is hell-bent on retaliation against the one he believes took his son. But his adversary has different ideas. Elijah Montgomery is the grandson of a former slave to the Creek Indian Nation. He resides in the local nursing home,...

Reader's Opinions

This is a really good book with great character development. You will undoubtedly get to know Mark Grahams characters well when reading Land Run, and if you are like me, they will remind you of real people you actually know. It was Jakes turn to clean the kitchen. The room looked like a kind of Moose Lodge for roosters. His wife, Amy...

Land RunBy Mark GrahamPublished by Tate Publishing & Enterprises, LLCISBN 978-1-61777-011-1 $14.99Land Run by Mark Graham is a classic example of the average man becoming a victim of the system that is supposed to protect his rights, but with an unforeseen twist or two. When aged landowner Elijah Montgomery refuses to sell his land to...
