

THE OLD AMULET: THE FABLE OF THE BEGINNING STORY

The Old Amulet is a timeless and beautiful fable about nothing less than storytelling itself. With beginnings and endings, truth and meaning, science and magic, and an old promise kept, this is a story you'd wish would never end, and, in sense, never does. As salmon struggle upstream...

Reader's Opinions

I read this as a First Reads winner. At first I was discouraged because the copy wasn't in book format but eventually I read it when I had nothing else to do and do not regret that choice. Beautifully written, The Old Amulet simultaneously tells three intertwined stories. It is in no way a burden to read (though I may have treated it...

I won this book as an ARC. This book toggles between telling you about a salmon's return to a lake in Alaska to spawn and a mother and her two children returning to the same lake to spread the ashes of the mother's grandma. This story is beautifully written. I enjoyed the vivid imagery as well as the storyline itself. If you enjoy...
