Peek Inside the Book

But I had not the strength nor the inclination to bandy words with a drunkard. What have you done when you have bested a fool? Charles Portis, True Grit

I know what they said even if they would not say it to my face. People love to talk. They love to slander you if you have any substance. Charles Portis, True Grit

Reader's Opinions

Several things drew me to this book. First, the Coen brothers decided to do an adaptation of this book and second, some good friends wrote some fantastic reviews of it. Because they did such a good job of telling what the book was about, I won't go into much detail, but I will talk a little bit about something I observed about the main...
