

СУМРАЧЕН ПАТРУЛ

Роденият като Човек не е способен да стане Различен. Така е било винаги. На това се крепи равновесието между Нощния и Дневния патрул, между Светлите и Тъмните магове. Но какво би се случило, ако някой разбере как да превръща в Различни съвсем обикновени хора? Ако...

Peek Inside the Book

But even if we were to disappear, people would still be divided into people and Others. No matter how those Others were different. People can't get by without Others. Put two people on an uninhabited island, and you'll have a human being and an Other. And the difference is that an Other is always tormented by his differentness. It's easier for people. They know...

This was how you wound up in the Inquisition. When you stopped being able to see any difference between Light Ones and Dark Ones. When for you, people weren't even a flock of sheep, but just a handful of spiders in a glass...

Reader's Opinions

This is my favourite book out of the four that make up the series. New characters are introduced into the story, older characters are brought back from the first book, the events of the second book have set interesting predicaments and conditions and Lukyanenko's writing takes all these to the next...

Sometimes it takes a book of fiction to teach us about real life. If there was a way to give it 4 and a 1/2 stars I would. To me, definitely the best book of the series! Majestic! haha. But, it has a few story loopholes or well, at least shortcomings, which started annoying me after I finished the book and thought about it.
