

AND NEVER LET HER GO

Eight years ago, Erin Donahue had it all--her own city apartment, a career in photography, and a man who'd do anything for her. But things change. Fate steps in. Now, living in the small town of Destiny, IL, Erin embraces her new life, free of hurting anyone else. She's all alone, and she likes it like that. Independent,...

Peek Inside the Book

You're such a good person, Slade." "No, I'm not. If I were, I never would have developed feelings for my brother's woman. Most brothers can bring their girlfriends home without their siblings falling in love with them. If I were religious, that'd be a cardinal rule or something not coveting thy brother's wife. Yeah, well, I broke that one. Nancy Glynn, And Never Let Her Go

Reader's Opinions

I debated between a three and four star...if I could, I'd give it a 3.5 star rating. It begins with a bang and a main character, Erin, finding out shocking news about a past love. Feeling rattled by this after spending so much time trying to get over it and have the brother...
