Peek Inside the Book

We were supposed to be an English literature class, but Miss Nesbitt used literature to teach real life. She said she didn't have time to teach us like a regular English teacher--we were too far behind. Instead, she taught us the world through literature. Phillip M. Reader's Opinions

"Claudette Colvin: Twice Toward Justice" by Phillip M. Hoose is the story of Claudette Colvin and the very large role she played in the Civil Rights Movement... a role that has largely been forgotten. Most of us know about Rosa Parks and how she refused to move to the back of the bus. What's less well known is that she was an experienced...
