

VOICES OF THE PACIFIC: UNTOLD STORIES FROM THE MARINE HEROES OF WORLD WAR II

These are the stories from fifteen WWII Marines, compiled by Adam Makos and Marcus Brotherton but left unfiltered and in the words of the Marines who were there. Unflinching, brutal, and relentless, Voices of the Pacific will leave a reader gasping for air and dumbstruck in awe of the old heroes who won the Pacific war with bare hands, bayonets, and guts. The book presents...

Peek Inside the Book

On December 26, 1943, the Marines landed on the western tip of the island of New Britain, at a place called Cape Gloucester. On the opposite end of the island lay Japan's South Pacific battle capital, the fortress port of Rabaul. The Marines were not there to...

Reader's Opinions

I hesitated to read this book because I've never read anything in this style before, and it ended up being unlike anything I've ever read - in a good way. The author describes it as the conversations you never had with your grandparents (or great-grandparents) and that's absolutely what it is. This is a really incredible book - it's...
