

HOLOCAUST SURVIVOR

In this penetrating memoir, we witness the Holocaust through the eyes of Mike Jacobs (then Mendel Jakubowicz), who was a teenager during Word War II. With great clarity, Jacobs recounts five years of confinement in ghettos and concentration camps. A story told without hatred or bitterness, "Holocaust Survivor" teaches us that when we recognize that freedom comes from within, we are never completely powerless.

Reader's Opinions

The beginning and end of the book were a bit dragged out but the parts about the war years were harrowing.
