

RED RIDING HOOD

Valerie's sister was beautiful, kind and sweet. Now she is dead. Henry, the handsome son of the blacksmith, tries to console Valerie, but her wild heart beats fast for another: the outcast woodcutter, Peter, who offers Valerie another life far from home. After her sister's violent death, Valerie's world begins to spiral out of control. For generations, the Wolf has been kept at bay with a monthly sacrifice. But now no...

Promise me you'll be careful, my boy." She handed him the pack she'd assembled."Don't worry. The Wolf has no interest in me," he said, smiling through his pain. "I'm all gristle. Sarah Blakley-Cartwright, Red Riding Hood

Reader's Opinions

Once upon a time in a land far, far away, there is a village much like other villages in the time of yore. In this village is a girl named Valerie, her older sister named Lucie, and their parents, Suzette with unrequited love...
