Peek Inside the Book

Friendships outlive marriages and family. Friendships can make a life wonderful or wasted, worth sacrificing or worth saving. In the Paris-based 7-book Apricot Tree House Mystery Series, Jamie Litton and Ben Foulouf choose to save each other because they have learned that friendship is that fragile thread tethering all of us between Heaven and Earth. Peggy Kopman-Owens, The Promise...

The French know the intrinsic value of holding on to the past, its pleasures, its promises, and its tender mercies. Peggy Kopman-Owens, The Promise - Yposchesi

Reader's Opinions

This book is fantastic!!The author has artfully crafted the mystery to grab you as you 'enter' the story. Each turn of the page the draws the reader in as the mystery builds and the characters become more fascinating.Having recently finished a University program, I've been a bit book-weary. So as I packed for a trip with a very long...

We all judge books by their covers, but in this case I'm advising you not to do that! The cover design is one of my few criticisms of this book and of course this is merely my personal opinion, but I really don't think it...
