Peek Inside the Book

It would be so good to settle down and become part of somewhere again, instead of constantly passing through Paul Torday, Salmon Fishing in the Yemen

Reader's Opinions

The book got off to an interesting start, and held my attention, but I found it, ultimately, disappointing. Its biggest weakness was its lack of subtlety. For me, satire relies on an insidious subtlety that helps to separate it from outright farce. In this case, the satire would have been much more effective if it hadn't been applied...
