Reader's Opinions

I guess you can call most of Arkady Gaidar's children/Ya novels as the 'forgotten' kind by the children today. The School is a largely autobiographical story about the school of life which the younger generation of the revolution passed through and about the fathers and sons who took up arms to fight a just war for a happy future. The...

'School' is a tale of the Russian Civil War of 1917, experienced by a 14 year old boy, Boris, the narrator of the book. Boris abandoned his school for joining the Red Army,...
