Reader's Opinions

This book was well written and easy to understand. The author takes you through the step by step process of setting up an online business. She includes instructions on creating a pay pal account, setting up a shipping account and ways in which you...

I was very impressed with how upfront and direct this book was! With so many sellers on Ebay, competition can be fierce. Knowing the correct ways of listing your ads and handling customers is a MUST if you are going to turn this into a profitable business...
