Peek Inside the Book

She became confused when she stepped onto an escalator that wasn't working. Don DeLillo, Point Omega

Reader's Opinions

Perfect distance, perfect despair, crisp prose, "dreams of extinction", the failed pursuit of "the true life". I haven't read DeLillo in years, since White Noise, and I don't remember him being this good, though at the same time I'm not sure if this novel is his best or even a very successful. He's too much of a "Great American Author"...
