

THE RISE OF AREDOR

Lost in a foreign land and separated from his family, Corin does his best to survive as a slave in the household of a Calorin lord. With newfound friends he fights for survival in ambushes and wars. For one act of bravery, he is awarded his freedom and returns to a home that has been invaded and ravaged by the Calorin armies. When Corin sets foot on Aredor's shores, he has one goal in mind: find his...

Reader's Opinions

WOW!! This was a great book!! The beginning was magnificent, after about halfway through it got a little less exciting, but it was still great. So o like the first half the best. I just LOVE Corin!!! For people who love battles and wars this is a great book for you. Everyone should read it. I recommend it...
