Reader's Opinions

Gracious, this was the most depressing book I've read in a long time. Don't read it unless you want a real downer.

"They're born and your life expands, it bulges with their presence for the rest of your days. They change you in every way you can think of, they push mountains up on the horizon and make canyons and valleys in the terrain of your life. But what you don't realize until later, what is...
